UNIVERSITÀ DI PISA

PRINCIPLES OF MEDIEVAL HISTORY

MAURO RONZANI

Anno accademico	2020/21
CdS	CULTURAL HERITAGE STUDIES
Codice	077MM
CFU	6

Moduli	Settore/i	Tipo	Ore	Docente/i
ISTITUZIONI DI STORIA MEDIEVALE	M-STO/01	LEZIONI	36	MAURO RONZANI

Learning outcomes

Knowledge
To know the main events of the Middle Ages (5-15 centuries) in Europe and Mediterranean Sea

Assessment criteria of knowledge
Two written proofs in October and December. An oral examination.

Skills
To be able to read and learn an italian manual on the history of Middle Ages, including the historical maps. To be able to read and understand written and material sources. The written sources are usually in Italian.

Assessment criteria of skills
Through the written proofs and the oral examination.

Behaviors
Students must participate carefully and actively.

Assessment criteria of behaviors
Through dialogue and public discussion about possible problems.

Prerequisites
To have a high school leaving qualification.

Syllabus
The main events of European and Mediterranean Middle Ages

Bibliography
A good italian manual such as A. Zorzi, Manuale di storia medievale, Utet 2016; L. Provero-M. Vallerani, Storia medievale, Le Monnier 2016; G. Vitolo, Il Medioevo.
Further course material will be available on the Moodle platform .

Non-attending students info
1. Personal study of an italian manual.
2. Study of one book to be chosen between:

1. Azzara, L'Italia dei barbari, Mulino, 2003 (o altro libro analogo dello stesso autore)
2. Barbero, Carlo Magno. Un padre dell'Europa, Laterza, 2006
3. Poloni, Potere al Popolo, B. Mondadori, 2010
4. Lazzarini, L'Italia degli stati territoriali, Laterza, 2003

It is possible to agree with the professor on other books, but the student should have carried previously a little bibliographical inquiry.

UNIVERSITÀ DI PISA

Assessment methods
Two written proofs in October and December. An oral examination since January.

Additional web pages
See http://elearning.humnet.unipi.it/

Updated: 05/08/2020 09:33

UNIVERSITÀ DI PISA

Two written proofs in October and December. An oral examination since January.