Obiettivi di apprendimento

Conoscenze

THIS COURSE WILL BE HELD IN THE SECOND SEMESTER AND ONLY IN ENGLISH. It is included in the programme of the double-degree "Political Consulting and International relations" but it is open to students of the LM 52 'International Studies' and to all students who are interested in EU law.

The course is designed for students who have never studied EU law and have a B2 level of English.

The student who successfully completes the course will be able to know what are the EU institutions and how they operate; how the EU interacts with other subjects of international law in the wider international community; how EU law and international law co-exist. Special emphasis will be placed on the external aspects of the EU human right policy and on the EU relations with its neighbours as well as 'neighbours of neighbours'.

The Syllabus will be made available to the students through the teaching platform on the first day of class.

Modalità di verifica delle conoscenze

The course is obligatory for the students of the double degree with the MGIMO; students should participate to 80% of the classes in order to be able to take the exam.

Capacità

The student who successfully completes the course will be able to quickly grasp the institutional functioning of the EU.

Modalità di verifica delle capacità

- Students are required to read the material made available through the teaching platform and to be able to answer the questions included in the Syllabus made available by the chairholder to the students of the course.

Modalità di verifica dei comportamenti

- During the lectures, the active participation of the student will be considered as a sign of interest in the topics of the course

Prerequisiti (conoscenze iniziali)

It is preferable that students have a basic understanding of international law.
